

Story Board. Draw a small sketch of the key moments in your story, then use the lines below to make notes about what audio and effects you will be using alongside each picture. On the arrows, write what type of transition (fade, slide, etc.) you would like to use between images.

